

EDGEWALKERS

Pimelea physodes – Fitzgerald River National Park

EDGEWALKERS

Pimelea physodes

SOUTHERN WESTERN AUSTRALIA

More commonly known as Qualup Bell this stunning flowering plant is endemic to Western Australia and displays very attractive bell like flowers that hang in shades of pink and green.

It grows through parts of the Fitzgerald River National Park from late August through to December.

WWW.EDGEWALKERS.COM.AU

Pimelea physodes – Fitzgerald River National Park